ORDER:

In the G.O. 1st read above, orders were issued including the M.V.Sc. courses (the course as authorized by the Sri Venkateswara Veterinary University, Tirupati) as authorised one under F.R. 9(6) (b)(i) in Annexure-I by taking 15 in-service Veterinary Assistant Surgeons to undergo M.V.Sc. course for a period of 24 months in the State of Andhra Pradesh.

2. In the G.O.2nd read above orders were issued amending the F.R.9 including P.G. course in M.V.Sc. in the list of Authorized Courses of instructions or Training of the Government Servants.

3. The Director of Animal Husbandry, Telangana State, Hyderabad in his letter 3rd & 5th read above, has informed that in the erstwhile undivided Andhra Pradesh 15 in-service Veterinary Assistant Surgeons were deputed for prosecution of M.V.Sc. at Sri Venkateswara Veterinary University, Tirupati. He has further informed that after bifurcation of A.P., the Telangana State has got only 6 M.V.Sc. seats as per norms for in-service Veterinary Assistant Surgeons for prosecution of M.V.Sc. at Sri Venkateswara Veterinary University, Tirupati.

4. He has also informed that the Telangana SC Gazetted Officers Service Association, Animal Husbandry Department, has represented to increase number of M.V.Sc. seats to 15 for in service Veterinarians to improve the technical capacities of the Veterinarians and to provide better technical service to the rural farmers. He has further informed that by increasing the number of M.V.Sc. seats, the Technical Capacities of the in-service Veterinarians can be greatly improved to provide better service to the high yielding milch animals. It can improve the Meat, Milk & Egg production, there by improving the nutritional Safety & Food security of the people of Telangana.

5. The Director of Animal Husbandry, TS, Hyderabad has further informed that the total sanctioned posts of Veterinary Assistant Surgeon in the Department is 1010. Out of the cadre strength of 1010, only 30 Veterinary Assistant Surgeons are proposed for higher education (15 for 1st year & 15 for 2nd year). If the proposal is agreed by the Government, then services will be extended in these 30 posts of the Veterinary Assistant Surgeons by the Veterinary Assistant Surgeons of the nearby centres along with the support of the Para Vets. He has also informed that services of the Veterinary Assistant Surgeons undergoing higher education will be utilized to extend specialized services in the field to benefit the livestock farmers after completion of their higher education, hence the salary paid to them is justifiable keeping in view of the expert services to be extended by them during the remaining period of service.

6. The Director of Animal Husbandry, TS, Hyderabad has requested to increase number of M.V.Sc. Seats to the in-service Veterinarians from 6 to 15 to improve the technical capacities of the Veterinarians and to provide better technical service to the rural farmers.

7. In his letter 4th read above, the Dean and Registrar, Sri P.V. Narsimha Rao Telangana State University for Veterinary, Animal and Fishery Sciences, Rajendranagar, Hyderabad has informed that the number of seats available for M.V.Sc. in their college was 43 seats during the academic year 2014-15 and these seats were allotted by Sri Venkateswara Veterinary University, Tirupati and this year 44 seats are proposed.

8. He has further informed that there were 15 seats available in combined A.P. State. After establishment of Sri P.V. Narsimha Rao Telangana State University for Veterinary, Animal and Fishery Sciences, 6 seats are made available now for the in service Veterinary Assistant Surgeon to pursue M.V.Sc.. He has also informed that since, SPVNR TSU VAFS has been established and the separate University started functioning w.e.f. 22-11-2014, it is decided to increase the present quota from 6 to 10 (ten) to the in service Veterinary Assistant Surgeon to study M.V.Sc. from this academic year 2015-16; These seats are over and above 44 seats.

9. Government after careful examination, hereby decide to increase the seats for in-service Veterinary Assistant Surgeons from 6 to 10 (ten) to prosecute M.V.Sc. course at Sri P.V. Narsimha Rao Telangana State University for Veterinary, Animal and Fishery Sciences, Rajendranagar, Hyderabad for a period of 24 months, subject to meeting the expenditure within the available budget.

10. This order issues with the concurrence of Finance (EBS.II) Department vide their U.O.No.10104/174/A2/2015, dated: 5-9-2015.
